

Peter Green

ABOUT PETER

Peter is a strong and articulate communicator with a passion for helping others learn and grow, a gregarious and engaging facilitator able to help people connect performance and business results. He is an experienced trainer, facilitator and coach, and is also qualified to use psychometric tools.

Peter has over 25 years' experience in business and has first-hand experience of Managing and Leading teams as well as running Learning and Development functions.

SKILLS AND SPECIALITIES

Peter's career spanned over 25 years with Mars Incorporated during which time he ran a diverse range of functions from High Volume Production to Customer Service and Logistics. During this time he gained a passion and skill for helping people learn and grow and developed a fascination with the brain and how it works, which led him to also deliver management training and Coaching programmes. His final role was Global Learning and Development manager for the drinks group where he was responsible for training managers to increase employee engagement.

PROFESSIONAL QUALIFICATIONS

- MBTI
- NLP
- Situational Leadership
- Emotional Intelligence at Work
- Coaching & Mentoring (OCM adv dip)
- Brain Friendly Trainer (BFLG)